

2011

Ralph B. Atkinson

Celebration of Civil Liberties

Please join us in honoring this year's award recipient
Jan Knippers Black for her advocacy for displaced, distressed and voiceless people all over the world.

with keynote speaker
Abdi Soltani

Executive Director of the ACLU of Northern California

Saturday

October 22

2 to 4 PM

*Reception 2 to 2:30 pm
refreshments*

Unitarian Universalist Church

*490 Aguajito Rd.
(off Hwy. 1, Carmel)*

*$25-50
sliding scale admission*

Jan Knippers Black is a Professor of International Policy Studies at the Monterey Institute of International Studies. She has had a passion for freedom, fairness and social justice ever since she first went to Chile as one of the founding members of Peace Corps volunteers. She is an expert in and advocate for human rights and international and comparative politics of the Western Hemisphere. She has worked on Amnesty International USA campaigns since the 1970s and has recently been elected to serve on the Board of Directors for AIUSA.

For more information call Patti Fashing 831-776-1514. Email pfash101@comcast.net www.aclumontereycounty.org

RSVP by October 17 to Monterey County Chapter, ACLU-NC, P. O. Box 1112, Pacific Grove, CA 93950
You may also call or email to reserve a space. Tickets will be held at the door.

- Please hold _____ reservations in my name(s) @ $25-50 each
- I can't attend but here is my donation to help support the Monterey County Chapter
- I am not a member of ACLU and would like to join. (payment for the event will include membership dues for any new member)

Enclosed is $ _____ payable to the Monterey County Chapter, ACLU-NC

Name(s) _____

Phone _____ Email _____

- Please send me email updates of ACLU events.